Bridging Heaven and Earth

What does Bridging Heaven and Earth represent for you?

...I wonder what magic, image, thought, emotions stir within you, your soul and perhaps community. The invitation is for joining the network of Building Bridges, so we may collectively awaken and fine tune our divinity in Creation....

While I called upon the "Bridging Heaven and Earth" prayer, I thought of Birth and how everything that manifests today is in a way embodiment of alchemical mating of the past, present and yes, the future!

Every form, thought, action, movement is as reaction that weaves upon an eternity. So, it made me wonder that the sensitivity of this prayer might've been "bridging" the fibers of my very own soul. I heard the ancestral voices echoing the ions of memory, deep within me and forward into a new light.

As I allowed myself to paint, feel and touch, the source of this energy moved me into waves of colour, sound, dance, so I stir in the seeds of life; my visions calling....HOME

Then it happened, when “the eyes become the seeing and the ears start listening“. In that moment everything was possible. With my ambition at hand, I called in, not one, but the rays of seven colours, which naturally stood clear, side by side, and awakened something that I had forgotten, my very own inner sun.....

I decided to walk on this Bridge and whisper words of light: love, harmony, peace, serenity, compassion, forgiveness ...then it was when I saw the Graces of these names shine through, like your very own soul, creating a grid of light that will connect as all...moving throughout the planet, expanding constellations of stars, opening doorways of beyond my wisdom...

I summon that everyone, from young to Elder will join in whispering words of light, prayers, stories, songs of Building Bridges. So we may hear again, and again,,...
the sacred geometry of our very own soul.

Spring has sprung as the Lion goddess of fire awakens the Divine Goddess in each of us. This month is the time of birthing the Divine Child form of the Divine Masculine. " ~ Julei Lynn Taylor Folkers Busch

Standing at the Doorway of Spring or Vernal equinox ( Celtic- Ostara); by the Aztec calendar New Year; from the voice of Mother Earth it is time for rebirth, transformation and new beginnings. As our "late winter" slowly fades away and the weather worms up, the hope of the green grass promises growth. The Winds of change in fall initiated much work that needed to be transmuted and held with the light of introspection throughout the winter hours. All that had been realized and brought up, need to be handled gently, let go and heal. In this way there will be room for a new growth.

Our Mother Earth witnesses much change in global warming, natural habitat and environmentally. Throughout the years we have directly coast much harm that is so evident now as we are experiencing the consequences on every land and water on the planet. The time to awaken is now!

We must take responsibility for all that we do; the way we live and consume; pollution; over population and over usage of natural resources. Every one of us must stand up, in the name of our life, our family, community and Earth. We all know in order to have healthy and good future we must change the presence. The "key" is to awaken oneself and tear the veils of ignorance, to look deep within and heal so we may one by one spread light throughout the circle, good medicine and conscious leaving.

It is time to call for the voice of the "ancient one". To listen to our ancestors, Elders so we can find good wisdom. We are to learn from the teachings that are being offered within the many traditions, which are evident today and stay open on our path, for we must find the way to better life. There is much to be learned and healed in the tradition itself, and for someone to enter the tradition there is much respect and humbles to be earned, so in these way we may come together on equal grounds, in the "good way" we may heal. But the way is not seen from one man eyes or found in one tradition teachings, the way is found in the centering fire of the community that is open to the village, the country, which unites globally with the synchronicity of the Creations Lows; found in the evolutionary universal "force of light".

The one who seeks the way must learn, heal and give away in ceremony and in this way we may see the honoring transitions and weave. We are to come together and celebrate among as a "bouquet of flowers" in multi- couloirs, as people we are to learn to build many drums and sing many songs. In this way we may recognize each utter, grow and become. The prayer for healing must continue so it may find us all around the same circle, were one day in the future we will find the one language that honors All in One; for all drums have one beat.

So, "Wildman" pray to "morning star" to seek out the way and find his Drum, the one and only one, made of his flesh and Spirit, the one with a Storytelling face. So he may go off proudly and "rise up" his Storytelling Tipi, and there by the fire he may find the blessings of "the Resurrection" and share the "answers" of his Soul.

Only when we truly heal and learn how to hold up "our lodge", every one of us, only than there will be no more doors and the fires of each Tipi will unite, bring down the walls and come to find the "awakening of spring".

Now, I continue to Pray and be grateful that I have come so far to know that the truth I have been looking for is here and now. In my prayers I like to walk gently and surrender the vision to the eyes of the Eagle: "Oh, mighty bird, your wings touch the Creators breath.....I pray that you watch over me and my family, my friends, all the people that I know and all the people yet to come. So we may patently find each other upon "the resurrection" of our New Life....."

*Artwork that inspires vision
communicates prayer

The Resurrection oil on canvas,2006 - available

Many among us are celebrating Easter Holliday and such a story stirs in each of us different emotion, comment, insight and so fort. There is much to say of Religion as a truth on one side and Immanuel ( Jesus') life on the other side. There is much writhen and proposed in the believe system of the Bible and on the other side many evolutionary visionaries and prophets such as Eduard Albert "Billy" Meier had revealed many insights, testimonies and spiritual teachings, that I find fascinating and starkly reflective of messages that are being channeled at this time for the spiritual "New-Age" people. I am not here to tell the stories and suggest truth, believe, judgment, compare or in any way disrespect one chosen faith. What I can say is that Immanuel was a great teacher. I would like to hold and perceive his "resurrection" story from a symbolic prospective. We have been crucified and died many deaths within the hands of our family; societies; false teachings; politicks, est. We have suffered greatly from our man made Laws, ignorant, ego centered, controlling and violent nature. The lives of many woman, children, man has been sacrificed in many ways and suffered much crucial punishments. What I like to say we are already witnessing and experiencing deep pain within each of us; sometimes coast from our own personal dilemma and most of the time our wound is reflective from the voice of our ancestors. Inherited through our generations, tribal and blood lines, that lived before us, from times before now. What we are now trying to heal is the voice of our "Sacred Wound". Now is time to let go of the past and transform the tremendous pain with a beautiful prayer that it will initiate forgiveness and let go of much heaviness. We no longer need to carry on the Sacred Wound we have the power of choice, hand of an artist and voice of a Storyteller to let the wings of our song go free in the light of "the resurrection".

Seems as we had lived our life in the centre of a Whirlwind, experiencing every breath that had been echoed from our family and past. Now we can step out the Whirlwind and witness the extraordinary forces and energies that co-create and take part in the weaving of our "dream"/life. What I like to say is hold your Story sacredly and come out share among us. We need to hear every one and each of us in order to become whole. We need to heal from a collective voice and live a vision that weaves in Peace and is in harmony with all our Relations....

We have birthed many spiritual-healing-circles today. It is beautiful to see how many of us already are awakening and reaching toward the Devine. The events even become a casual gathering, weekly over cup of Tea, simply for the coast to connect and heal.....

The winter hours have been very intense with healing and weaving of my personal Story. I had Spirit supporting me within the many forms of expressive, intuitive and healing work that I weave. I am so grateful for the "communal fire" that had been always radiating some loving heat.

I would like to say thank you and send blessings of light to the many drum circles, dance and ceremonial gatherings in Toronto that I had been involved with in the last hours. I remember grandmother sad once: "you can only heal within the community (circle)".

Here, I like to thank you Mark Jenkins, so happy to say your name. You had gathered us and opened the doors of your home so lovingly, for the sacred and honorable work that is to be celebrated in "raising up" of the communal Storytelling Tipi. The initiation and the stages of the work, down from peeling out the bark off the poles, to the prayers of raising and finally standing of the Tipi, has been so synchronous and helping in the weaving and enfoldment of my path. I say HO! for such a wisdom and courage that follows the heart and speaks the community! We are ready to hear from you for our upcoming "by the fire" storytelling. For the one who is interested to meet with you before hand I would like to share your link at www.riverteeth.com . there are some beautiful photos taken from the actual ceremony, free to share for the one who seeks. Yes, it's real!!

Now at the end of the "telling" of this very lengthy Newsletter I would like to acknowledge March 22 as our WORLD WATER DAY.

The Creator has blessed us with Water. Water is very sacred to us and Mother Earth. Today our Water needs our help. We are Water. This is how we are all related. Care for Water. Treat Water with respect. Offer tobacco, blessings and listen to Water, she carries many answers for us. Water is Life. Appreciate Water. Heal with Water. Say THANKS to Water. Love Water.

consciousness. His body was soul, his pure
wisdom apparent in his beautiful face.*

The Soul Portrait that I weave is unique as yourself.

All this initiated in your space, could be rewarding in all the ways that you could think of. As a meditation tool; as fun and therapeutic; of the dream time, visionary; storytelling and sometimes scary!

OK fung shui, may be on your way!

Receive this uniqueness the way it may come, for it is your gift of Spirit and your calling of the Ages!

It would be great if you are present for the start up gestures and if not I will need your name, date and place of birth and if you wish your secret, photo!!

Sacred Face ~ Mask Making

HO!...to the Sisterhood of the Shields for the wisdom, in Spirit; to Lynn Andrews and her give away...HO! to the many teachers that have brought light upon my path and the many "hands" received from above...I remember the creation of my own "Mask of Power" this beautiful Vision of all times...just to find it's face rising from the ashes...as the "firebird" keeper of the inner flame!

I have carefully dreamed this journey for us, in honor for the Sacred path of Mask Making. I would like to offer you guidance, along the sacred line of the Medicine Wheel. Upon each direction there is a gift for you, creating along the way ...you will hold Four Masks of many, that will represent the depths of your most inner places, awoken through meditation, symbolism and the wisdom that allies in all the sides that we turn for a direction...you will understand the energy patterns that hold these “faces” and how we find these in our day to day movement. In understanding these energies you will learn how to choreograph and transform; balance our feminine and masculine; and use these gifts for our healing and community.

Towards the end of the journey we will unite the Four Masks into One Mask, as a centering place within, as Mask of Power and our most Sacred Face.

We will honor and initiate the awakening of the Masks in a ceremony, we will give away and empower your Song!

This work is very Sacred. It is often personal and sometimes difficult...I would like to make room for each of you and offer my time on a “one to one” basis, in presence. The workshop lasts 7 sessions, the hour could vary form 3 to 5 hours...and to your call I will set the day!

" People all around the world are celebrating the beginning of a New Year at different times. Isn't that interesting? It makes me feel that Life moves in circles- in every moment is both an end of a circle and a beginning of a new one. Are you standing at the beginning of a new circle now? or are you still experiencing the end of a circle? Perhaps both being manifested at the same time?"

Some things may seem as if they had come to an end. It is time to move on. Did they really?" ~ Ora Waldman, Smiling Heart

Our time is one of transition and movement, which manifest itself through patterns of letting go and making room for more...

Upon the "door step" of the New Year I would like us to take some time in silence.....

Let us acknowledge our ancestors that walked the pathways before us and "stand up" in honor for our grandfathers and grandmothers that nurtured and brought our world today. For all the straggle that it took in the joys of Life. As a mother rising a child, blessed from the fathers love, that grows in a beautiful dream that we call us.

Sometimes is not easy to move on in Life, and even welcome New Year that it seems as it comas so easy as overnight.

Now, I would like to pick up my hand Dram and pray.....for all the families and single parents; yang children; old and in need; pray with our song that we share; for a good time to see together; in support and love; to belong. I would like to recognize and name all the one -us I, and hear me come upon the beat of the Drum....

Our Big and beautiful city sometimes could become too heavy to carry upon ones man back. Man who is simple in his ways, man who like to walk in woods and smell the flowers, even grow a garden. Now, for me and my son is a "sacred time", the one of transition. We had made the day beautiful "us the sun rises from the night" playing and weaving.....so beautiful and free in oneness and yet at times alone. The month of January will be prayer for our new home to come. We are looking for a new place to leave and wherever it may be, we welcome it's goodness in sacredness. At this hour we seek and reflect upon your guidance "my people", your straight and faith that keeps the "flames on".....on a cold winter day. Wherever you are and whoever you might be.....know that we are an ancient song upon a road of a Storytelling Heart.

I wish for all my brothers and sisters, all the blessings and goodness that New Year offers.....

Now, let us step upon the road in "Gentle Walk" and weave a vision that welcomes New Life!

Artwork that inspires vision

Gentle Walk, oil on canvas, 2006, available

Upon the South you may enter, graceful in your body and light in your walk us child resting upon the deer's strength, may we all join in the ride and let the wheel begin.

When we look into the Western door let us awake the dream that ones was ours, seeing in vision, far into the past and beyond the future
let us embrace the dance again....

As "united spirits" we may shine in the Northern lights universe may open and reveal our most ancient ways

So we may celebrate and illuminate into the Eastern Sundance were the prayer of the people was born for the future generations of our Life and Namaste!... the winter hours of the "snow moon." Your "white robes" feel as if they carry the breath of the White Buffalo in the Air: sacredness of Spirit, abundance and prayer. To call upon the "sacred space" in this time is to make room for understanding, reflection, and introspection. The quiet beauty of the days reveal themselves with the voice of Storytelling. May we hear wisdom softly falling like the dance of the snowflakes, and deepen with Creation. May we initiate and ponder new seeds, that patiently will be nourished and planted in the upcoming months of Spring. Now it's good to "slow down," gather, to heal, recollect, and give ourselves the sacredness of space. Today there are many paths, traditions, ways of living, beliefs, which co-create with Creation. It is OK to reflect, learn, and grow with the many possibilities of Spirit offered, but is essential to look within one's Soul; to find and bring forth our unique place, and how is weaving along with Creation. What does this mean? How are we evolving, manifesting? How do we consciously hold and realize our "one of a kind" threads that transpire and interwine along with all the relations of our essential living .The Key is to become one with Creation.

In these days of "winter fire" I have been weaving the "Medicine Colors": these are my new series of artworks which draw their inspiration from Native Medicine Wheel teachings. They are to be shown this month in various sizes: small miniatures starting from 8"x8" and few larger, all painted with acrylic on canvas. We have journeyed with the Medicine Wheel in the previous months and recognized that there are four colours in a circle: Red, Black, White and Yellow. Each of the colours stand as a gateway, one at every side of the four directions, and represent the "united way" of all nations. The Medicine Wheel sometimes is called Sacred Hoop. This symbol of all of life's cycles has given us an evolutionary blueprint for centuries. Each cycle of life is honored, giving us a way to see the value of each step of our pathway and gives a new understanding of our growth patterns. Upon entering the doorway of each of the directions follows wisdom to be realized and for every one there is a personal "totem" to assist and guide us throughout our unique journeys. The teachings vary from tradition to tradition. In my Eyes woven in my paintings they represent an image of an "open heart" with a message for Love. They appear as a moving force that flows on the canvas, almost as musical notes that magically invites one to hear.... Beautiful Valentine's Day offerings and I hope you could stop by our neighborhood "Rebas Café" and join me at the Opening reception in the groove of creativity. great company and sharing of whirling wisdom!

Spring has sprung as the Lion goddess of fire awakens the Divine Goddess in each of us. This month is the time of birthing the Divine Child form of the Divine Masculine. " ~ Julei Lynn Taylor Folkers Busch

Standing at the Doorway of Spring or Vernal equinox ( Celtic- Ostara); by the Aztec calendar New Year; from the voice of Mother Earth it is time for rebirth, transformation and new beginnings. As our "late winter" slowly fades away and the weather worms up, the hope of the green grass promises growth. The Winds of change in fall initiated much work that needed to be transmuted and held with the light of introspection throughout the winter hours. All that had been realized and brought up, need to be handled gently, let go and heal. In this way there will be room for a new growth.

Our Mother Earth witnesses much change in global warming, natural habitat and environmentally. Throughout the years we have directly coast much harm that is so evident now as we are experiencing the consequences on every land and water on the planet. The time to awaken is now!

We must take responsibility for all that we do; the way we live and consume; pollution; over population and over usage of natural resources. Every one of us must stand up, in the name of our life, our family, community and Earth. We all know in order to have healthy and good future we must change the presence. The "key" is to awaken oneself and tear the veils of ignorance, to look deep within and heal so we may one by one spread light throughout the circle, good medicine and conscious leaving.

It is time to call for the voice of the "ancient one". To listen to our ancestors, Elders so we can find good wisdom. We are to learn from the teachings that are being offered within the many traditions, which are evident today and stay open on our path, for we must find the way to better life. There is much to be learned and healed in the tradition itself, and for someone to enter the tradition there is much respect and humbles to be earned, so in these way we may come together on equal grounds, in the "good way" we may heal. But the way is not seen from one man eyes or found in one tradition teachings, the way is found in the centering fire of the community that is open to the village, the country, which unites globally with the synchronicity of the Creations Lows; found in the evolutionary universal "force of light".

The one who seeks the way must learn, heal and give away in ceremony and in this way we may see the honoring transitions and weave. We are to come together and celebrate among as a "bouquet of flowers" in multi- couloirs, as people we are to learn to build many drums and sing many songs. In this way we may recognize each utter, grow and become. The prayer for healing must continue so it may find us all around the same circle, were one day in the future we will find the one language that honors All in One; for all drums have one beat.

So, "Wildman" pray to "morning star" to seek out the way and find his Drum, the one and only one, made of his flesh and Spirit, the one with a Storytelling face. So he may go off proudly and "rise up" his Storytelling Tipi, and there by the fire he may find the blessings of "the Resurrection" and share the "answers" of his Soul.

Only when we truly heal and learn how to hold up "our lodge", every one of us, only than there will be no more doors and the fires of each Tipi will unite, bring down the walls and come to find the "awakening of spring".

Now, I continue to Pray and be grateful that I have come so far to know that the truth I have been looking for is here and now. In my prayers I like to walk gently and surrender the vision to the eyes of the Eagle: "Oh, mighty bird, your wings touch the Creators breath.....I pray that you watch over me and my family, my friends, all the people that I know and all the people yet to come. So we may patiently find each other upon "the resurrection" of our New Life....."

*Artwork that inspires vision
communicates prayer
and sends healing!

The Resurrection oil on canvas,2006 - available

Many among us are celebrating Easter Holliday and such a story stirs in each of us different emotion, comment, insight and so fort. There is much to say of Religion as a truth on one side and Immanuel ( Jesus') life on the other side. There is much writhen and proposed in the believe system of the Bible and on the other side many evolutionary visionaries and prophets such as Eduard Albert "Billy" Meier had revealed many insights, testimonies and spiritual teachings, that I find fascinating and starkly reflective of messages that are being channeled at this time for the spiritual "New-Age" people. I am not here to tell the stories and suggest truth, believe, judgment, compare or in any way disrespect one chosen faith. What I can say is that Immanuel was a great teacher. I would like to hold and perceive his "resurrection" story from a symbolic prospective. We have been crucified and died many deaths within the hands of our family; societies; false teachings; politicks, est. We have suffered greatly from our man made Laws, ignorant, ego centered, controlling and violent nature. The lives of many woman, children, man has been sacrificed in many ways and suffered much crucial punishments. What I like to say we are already witnessing and experiencing deep pain within each of us; sometimes coast from our own personal dilemma and most of the time our wound is reflective from the voice of our ancestors. Inherited through our generations, tribal and blood lines, that lived before us, from times before now. What we are now trying to heal is the voice of our "Sacred Wound". Now is time to let go of the past and transform the tremendous pain with a beautiful prayer that it will initiate forgiveness and let go of much heaviness. We no longer need to carry on the Sacred Wound we have the power of choice, hand of an artist and voice of a Storyteller to let the wings of our song go free in the light of "the resurrection".

Seems as we had lived our life in the centre of a Whirlwind, experiencing every breath that had been echoed from our family and past. Now we can step out the Whirlwind and witness the extraordinary forces and energies that co-create and take part in the weaving of our "dream"/life. What I like to say is hold your Story sacredly and come out share among us. We need to hear every one and each of us in order to become whole. We need to heal from a collective voice and live a vision that weaves in Peace and is in harmony with all our Relations....

We have birthed many spiritual-healing-circles today. It is beautiful to see how many of us already are awakening and reaching toward the Devine. The events even become a casual gathering, weekly over cup of Tea, simply for the coast to connect and heal.....

The winter hours have been very intense with healing and weaving of my personal Story. I had Spirit supporting me within the many forms of expressive, intuitive and healing work that I weave. I am so grateful for the "communal fire" that had been always radiating some loving heat.

I would like to say thank you and send blessings of light to the many drum circles, dance and ceremonial gatherings in Toronto that I had been involved with in the last hours. I remember grandmother sad once: "you can only heal within the community (circle)".

Here, I like to thank you Mark Jenkins, so happy to say your name. You had gathered us and opened the doors of your home so lovingly, for the sacred and honorable work that is to be celebrated in "raising up" of the communal Storytelling Tipi. The initiation and the stages of the work, down from peeling out the bark off the poles, to the prayers of raising and finally standing of the Tipi, has been so synchronous and helping in the weaving and enfoldment of my path. I say HO! for such a wisdom and courage that follows the heart and speaks the community! We are ready to hear from you for our upcoming "by the fire" storytelling. For the one who is interested to meet with you before hand I would like to share your link at www.riverteeth.com . there are some beautiful photos taken from the actual ceremony, free to share for the one who seeks. Yes, it's real!!

Now at the end of the "telling" of this very lengthy Newsletter I would like to acknowledge March 22 as our WORLD WATER DAY.

The Creator has blessed us with Water. Water is very sacred to us and Mother Earth. Today our Water needs our help. We are Water. This is how we are all related. Care for Water. Treat Water with respect. Offer tobacco, blessings and listen to Water, she carries many answers for us. Water is Life. Appreciate Water. Heal with Water. Say THANKS to Water. Love Water.

Innocence, oil on canvas, 60"x48", 2006, available

Innocence

At the Dance of connectedness and interrelated creations of infinite possibilities, the flow of the Sacred Whirlpool stands as an ancient wisdom.

From this pool of manifestation, arises a Vision....that is older than “time” and yet consists in the moment!

There is a Voice into this whirl, searching for it’s Eyes....

like in a distant place, she climbs up the back of a magnificent white Stallion, WITHIN...

she hears with, the name Unicorn.

It has been told to her... this creature is wild in it’s freedom

...untouchable in the legend of it’s purity....

this blood she feels...running

...upon clear waters, a Child is born...speaking the clarity

she welcomes, close by.

As she whirls up embracing these prayers,

- "forgive me" your light is so near.

Upon this flight she goes, life is washing away...some depths of sorrow, sadness and all that appears as struggle

...the Owl has been seen... nourishing the Night

...Wings, transcending the Light...initiating, slithering , transmuting

...life force revealing as a Serpents Tail...weaving.

She welcomes comfort with this sight, as the illusionary Veil drops, manifesting her Name, seeking...

In this offering to "the Innocence", of her unknowingness...she comes...SEEING.

Keeping the "Innocence" window wide open, this space within each of us, speaks of our quiet beauty.

Our inner "Innocence" is reflected outwards with the enfoldment of Nature, spontaneously...

Carefully nourished and maintained, grows the Sacred Garden of Life.

Today we need to intimately look into our personal spaces and recognize how we are tending these inner Waters. This always weaves itself emotionally and manifest itself physically; into our day to day relationships; surroundings; careers we have chosen...these 'vines' of living manifestations travel globally and in a far places, which we may sometimes think we have little relations and knowledge of.

Let us rise and be full minded of all we do, all we create, feel...to heal!

Bring forward this Child Within so it may grow and Love our beautiful family, that we call Mother Earth!

“ A boat can represent your voyage toward the islands of higher consciousness. That boat is made from your treasured innocence. We are all born wild and innocent like the blue heron. To live in civilization, at a very young age we become like sheep trying to fit in with the crowd. To maintain your receptive innocence is to listen to our inner voices. Know that the powers of the universe are within you.”

- Lynn Andrews -The Power Deck

I would like to hold and extend this prayer, globally. There is much ignorance, unhappiness, war, hunger, and hard times on our planet... may the prayers of “Innocence” reach these far places and may “the creative” illuminate their faces...many souls have chosen “heavy” beliefs and carry their depths, may the light shine upon their beds...we all have free will and choice, may our patience become greater and transmute all that does not serve, later!!!!

...and most of all I would like to honour our Children, and recognize how vulnerable and sensitive they are; to their Angelic light, may we surrender!

Rumi

This session involves expressive movement and painting to engage and liberate the body's wisdom. We explore the colours of deep breath meditation, imaging, sounding, and visualization. Intuitively we reach inner depths of knowing and find the seeds of productivity that are kept within us.

As we immerse and move through the rhythms of this journey in a safe and patient way, we recognize our inner vibrational patterns. We then have the opportunity to weave from our depths a "web" of greater understanding and vision. All is reflected on the unique canvass, we flow!

Soul Portrait

Hi you!

Have you ever wished to have your beautiful portrait get done?yes!

Then this is for you, and do not expect to be some boring pretty face, hung on a wall to be admired. Instead I will closely look into woven fibers of Life Force, manifesting itself beyond the ordinary eyes; in space as vision and insight channeled through your conscious and unconscious wisdom to appear as it comes; take this, for it is your unfolding beauty.

The Soul Portrait that I weave is unique as yourself.

All this initiated in your space, could be rewarding in all the ways that you could think of. As a meditation tool; as fun and therapeutic; of the dream time, visionary; storytelling and sometimes scary!

OK feng shui, may be on your way!

Receive this uniqueness the way it may come, for it is your gift of Spirit and your calling of the Ages!

It would be great if you are present for the start up gestures and if not I will need your name, date and place of birth and if you wish your secret, photo!!

The cost is on a sliding scale that varies with the size of the canvas ( and how complicated you are, ha, ha!)

minimum size 20x20 for $345.00.Cheers!

Sacred Face ~ Mask Making

HO! to the Sisterhood of the Shields for the wisdom, in Spirit; to Lynn Andrews and her give away. HO! to the many teachers that have brought light upon my path and the many "hands" received from above. I remember the creation of my own Mask of Power, this beautiful Vision of all times, just to find it's face rising from the ashes as the firebird, keeper of the inner flame!

I have carefully dreamed this journey for us, in honor for the Sacred path of Mask Making. I would like to offer you guidance, along the sacred line of the Medicine Wheel. Upon each direction there is a gift for you, creating along the way you will hold Four Masks of many, that will represent the depths of your most inner places, awaken through meditation, symbolism and the wisdom that allies in all the sides that we turn for a direction you will understand the energy patterns that hold these faces and how we find these in our day to day movement. In understanding these energies you will learn how to choreograph and transform; balance our feminine and masculine; and use these gifts for our healing and community.

Towards the end of the journey we will unite the Four Masks into One Mask, as a centering place within, as Mask of Power and our most Sacred Face.

We will honor and initiate the awakening of the Masks in a ceremony, we will give away and empower your Song!

This work is very Sacred. It is often personal and sometimes difficult. I would like to make room for each of you and offer my time on a one to one basis, in presence. The workshop lasts 7 sessions, the hour could vary from 3 to 5 hours and to your call I will set the day!

$ 400.00 ~ the materials required for the mask building are inclusive, except your sacred objects that you will decorate your personal mask with...HO!

Turkish Coffee Grain Reading

This ancient foretelling has Egyptian roots; the tradition has been kept by the Arabians, Persians, Jews and always celebrated with the Turks.

It was introduced to me when I was 4 years old, and has been revealing its secrets up to this day.

Connecting with this sacred grain and welcoming its rich aroma, followed by respectful and full minded exchange we receive a gift from the magnificent map that is imprinted upon the walls of the round cup.

The grains are as an art sand painting that has been stirred by our inner Winds Storytelling in its Nature.

30min for $35.00

Whirling Wisdom Oracle - reading

I have realized how unique and magical we are all, individuals united. Born of our hour and of our day; time; upon a star constellation above; in reflection below, energetically ... by phases of the Moon ... stirring glazes.

Forever, traditionally Native we relate to our animals, allies walking around timeless "Medicine Wheel" ... yes, into the plants and what the Celts will say the Wisdom of the Trees ... it Whirls with the Chinese's yearly calendar ... western relations ... and how about colors and crystals and vibration patterns ... all this and some numerology.

Dance by heArt - creative dance

Hello once again, this beautiful colorful month of October!

Upon letting go of September, I would like to express my gratitude to all of you who were present at the Labyrinth Ceremony, communing with the meadow in the hours of the Autumn Equinox...

for your wisdom, visions and your simple presence....In Silence!

At this round of the Whirling Wisdom Newsletter, I like to give away the "Rising Phoenix" artwork, upon our journey...

which vision and prayers I choose to share,

at this welcoming hours of "Prince Autumn"!

*Artwork that inspires vision
communicates prayer
and sends healing*

"Rising Phoenix" oil on canvas, 40"x30" ~2006 available

Rising Phoenix

How great you are!

come upon your Light

rising of my sight...

*I hear, prayers...
weaving smoke
these ashes, I am your future to come.
My mind whirl, the Self of thought, awaken
transcend into blue sky...
up high flaming wings
burn your heat
let me feel, your eyes
that sees me!
this life you are shape-shifting fiery flames of the Sun, giving life force, free... unite and
come heal me!

The legend of the Phoenix as an ancient wisdom comes to us in myth, in the times of transformation, rejuvenation, death ~ rebirth...and let us name some more...

This "fire bird" it has been said, celebrates its journeys of life, in wealth and maturity...and upon this time its awakened "life force" burns its body that have been taken and all that have been created in prayer, to resurrect...from the ashes emerges a new life, that is opening a new door to the endless possibilities of holiness.

I would like us to hold this vision and cast a walking prayer upon the "Wheel of Life", today. As the Sun arises, let us enter the Eastern gateway of offering for our New journey (life), embracing. Upon this door I wish for guidance and illumination for what it is, to become.

Walking the little feet towards the South, lets spin this "Child Within"...with a breath of innocence, I like us to find our faith and hope for each other, "Mother Earth" and in humbleness, lets celebrate this "physical" body and remember our likeness...

Upon the West we surrender to our vision to come! Let us "dream" and swim our "emotions", as the Water we are, to heal and weave this in Peace... of introspection we find the Devine flow!

Walking towards North, lets us stand in a "white robes" and welcome Wind our grandfather to spin, our "adult self" to speak, in wisdom and gratitude...celebrate Spirit..

*To illuminate the "fires" of our Life upon East again is to remember our prayers, in Unity!
To light up our "fires";is to make a smoke that will help heal and reach this Dream, Life!*

*When we witness ourselves through the eyes of the "Medicine Wheel" (given name by the Aborigines) then we sit in an ancient wheel of truth. We need to look at all our aspects in our day to day Life. How we hold and nourish our physical body and balance this with our spirit; how we are with our emotions in counterbalance with our mental planes...
When we criss- cross the directions we will find our seat in the Center, this "Rising " of forgetting and remembering.*

*The Phoenix in the "Wheel of Life" resembles the "Tree of Life"...in correlation with the growing cycle and the changing of the seasons.
Looking closely in the Autumn, is when we find this "magical spell", colors freed...
binding life... of falling leaves and harvest, let us Rise and giveaway these Bliss!
Transmute and let go...falling mirrors...of illusionary mind...reveal our most Sacred Life!*

This past Sunday we had a ceremony for the "awakening of the drums", for me holding this blessing today at this "new journey" as a keeper of this Drum, it simply may mean, Sing....

*I had found sometimes people had a difficult time hearing me of what I had to "say"..maybe because I haven't "speak up loudly"...
and praying is what I like to say:*

May this Drum hear of all the Songs, playing for to sing is to tell your story *and to tell your story is to be free and to be free is to find your way home this home what we call heart beat,

"teachings of the Drum" may it reach us
the "Rising" of the Fires healing of the Waters upon the Earth, may "all our relations" awaken fill our lungs with the welcoming of Air and we may Feast!!*

"The veils between the worlds are thin before winter and it's time to say 'hi' to the ancestors with Day of the Dead, Halloween, and Spirit pours through more than usual with which we can choose to energize our projects annually creating a happy happy new year." ~ Krys Przybylski, joyous samhain, to the all that is we-I

What beautiful and festive days we had, I hope the Spirit celebrations were filled with the "many face", us- I...Isn't it so wonderful to walk upon today...filled with colour, oh so much colour everywhere, and our Wind is so marvelous in his spin. Storyteller of our ancient selves. When he is in the air it seems like "everything" is answering to his prayers of rising and falling. As magic whirling, this Earth awakens the whispers of our soul....so much beauty and music....like quiet Love singing our mystic song woven into the thin hours of today....We may choose to be "busy" and go on "buzzing" like this day by day, or we may simply surrender and rise above, to the grace of this moment....unfolding itself from itself, our ancient voice waiting to be heard, to be seen, is our story and an enchanted being ...

As we walk we see the day light fading away slowly and slowly, deepening the hours....Let us find our "inner sun" so we may gather around its heat and share the flames of our inner fires....it is a good time to welcome the "dream", reflect and stretch, thank the "old" and make room for the "new". Whatever it may mean to you I would love to share through your creativity, you may choose to write, paint, talk silence, enjoy family... and me, I will come to meet with you as we dance...

Towards the end of this month there is an "open house" and an Art show of my own....We have been blessed by our light/dark in so many ways, that we are....Seing these off my hand, I feel so happy for the giveaway !

Now I like to invite "Bird Medicine" and call upon this flight,however it may come on our canvas white....

*Artwork that inspire vision communicate prayer

Bird Medicine, 48"x 60", acrylic on canvas, 2003

In my vision I see the Eyes that look everywhere, which voice I hold in the centre...

from this place of within there is an opening of a Wing!

and as I go deep the weaving begins...

sounds of far come to this "ground", we are...

unite "birds" of flight...

This image reveals an opening passage held by our two Eagles which are woven within the medicine colours (black, white, yellow and red). The Eagle as a bird of prey has been called "closest to the "creator". He who builds its nest up high & soars the far distances in the Sky. The Owl we hear with a song that has been symbolized as "seer in the night" or deceiver, even death. This magnificent bird that can spin its head "around" perhaps carry vision beyond our ordinary Eye....Let us invite this vision so we may go deep into the side of Spirit, to see, hear, heal that which has a name ....so we may soar the night into the fading light...and (my 6 year old son told me this vision last night) at the end of that road there is a bridge to cross, where "three light houses" stand, and there we find some glowing jewels..

This is how we unite these two birds the Eagle and the Owl. From the depth of an Owl there comes the vision of the Eagle( rebirth)...soaring the highest plains in the blue Sky of our Eyes. Here these two wings unite to hold a "web" with an opening that has a Medicine to revive....

So today by day, perhaps in the choices we make, we would like to invite these "medicine colours" and see our "birds" filled with life,day and night....To meditate upon the flow of this opening will encourage an initiation and exploration of the many sides, corners and rooms of Spirit. You may look at the many personalities you carry, patterns of doings, likes and dislikes, and it is all to be held sacredly, understood and fully integrated ( I like to say in prayer!) as a cosmic manifestation...

so, let us unite the times passing by...future and past, the Key you hold may it be in our grasp!!

HO!

In these early and rainy hours of December, the quietness in the air carries the beautiful and silent initiation of our upcoming Holidays

Riding the bicycle to school, Justin and I and "rain", run as a river, today!

I hear my Justin say, "mom it's December 1, can I make some birthday invitation cards"?

Yes, there are 20 more days to Winter Solstice and our "sun" may rise again.

So, let us unwrap the goodness that we hold in our hug, and all giveaway....

Christmas time for everyone has a different meaning, including a Happy Chanukkah!

I wish all the Blessings of Light sparkle by our side, and all the sweetness, enjoy the opening of the heart..

I call upon "you", my relatives of all the directions, come and see them beautiful gather as one.

From the Whirling Wisdom oracle today, "Fathers Love" came out and want's to say:

*Artwork that inspires vision
communicates prayer
and sends healing!*

Fathers Love, oil on canvas, 60"x48", 2006,
available

Fathers Love

What is the sadness I am feeling, O God! On this day you are reborn.

Of a new born life celebration, people to gather to celebrate birth.

Mother and child hug as one, on a greeting card as a Star.

"I want to say hello today", as I open the card, it said "Happy Holiday".

I like to share my sorrow with you and the sky, for who are you that I feel alone.

Saying my heart today, I saw the "mother tears", reflection of mine, on this canvas for my tool to pray.

And in this sadness I saw your face, resting upon your shoulders. For me to see, my eyes went smiling, as I appear gladly.

Walking my path embracing your hug. To open up and blossom in harmony.

This flow I am, it feels right, walking my path, guided by you. The sadness is food of my soul, in tears to roll off into the sea as salt.

For people to share, of this water to drink. For to know, as a tale to be, the "sea of life" are we.

And in a song we thank you! for to sing feels good and awakening to me.

With this brush and a pen I hold, I have trust in you.

I thank you knowing that I am in you. Knowing that you are born of the innocence, of the sadness...of all the faces, you are the father of a pure new born baby.

This painting came on Easter Celebration and it is what I felt that day.

Now it is coming to weave into December, maybe it is here to remember.

Fathers Love is more than the Father and more than the Mother, it is between each other, written upon our centering Fire

when the father (sun) gets distant by the Winter hour

our mother Earth dreams the silent prayers of Spring, spinning these words upon the Wind and calls upon you, my daughter carrying the Water as white snowflakes LOVE dove birds, flying and mating in a sacred union.

.....to be continuing

.....( off I go, drumming)

Sacred Tree Offerings

Sacred Art

ARTIST OF THE SOUL ~ painting session

Session cost ~ $ 55.00 per hour

*In the evening between sleep and awakening, I met one traveling. He was the light of consciousness. His body was soul, his pure
wisdom apparent in his beautiful face.*

This session involves expressive movement and painting to engage and liberate the body's wisdom. We explore the colours of deep breath meditation, imaging, sounding, and visualization. Intuitively we reach inner depths of knowing and find the seeds of productivity that are kept within us.

As we immerse and move through the rhythms of this journey in a safe and patient way, we recognize our inner vibrational patterns. We then have the opportunity to weave from our depths a "web" of greater understanding and vision. All is reflected on the unique canvass, we flow!

Art Bliss ~ art class

One hour of instructional painting and drawing in any media or mix media you choose for your masterpiece...abstract, figurative, portraiture, landscape you named and created!!

cost: $ 25 per hour, including set up

Soul Portrait

Hi you!

Have you ever wished to have your beautiful portrait get done...yes!

...then this is for you, and do not expect to be some boring pretty face, hung on a wall to be admired. Instead I will closely look into woven fibers of Life Force, manifesting itself beyond the ordinary eyes; in space as vision and insight channeled through your conscious and unconscious wisdom to appear as it comes; take this, for it is your unfolding beauty.

The Soul Portrait that I weave is unique as yourself.

All this initiated in your space, could be rewarding in all the ways that you could think of. As a meditation tool; as fun and therapeutic; of the dream time, visionary; storytelling and sometimes scary!

OK fung shui, may be on your way!

Receive this uniqueness the way it may come, for it is your gift of Spirit and your calling of the Ages!

It would be great if you are present for the start up gestures and if not I will need your name, date and place of birth and if you wish your secret, photo!!

The cost is on a sliding scale that varies with the size of the canvas ( and how complicated you are, ha, ha!)

minimum size 20x20 for $345.00...Cheers!

Sacred Face ~ Mask Making

HO!...to the Sisterhood of the Shields for the wisdom, in Spirit; to Lynn Andrews and her give away...HO! to the many teachers that have brought light upon my path and the many “hands” received from above...I remember the creation of my own “Mask of Power” this beautiful Vision of all times...just to find it’s face rising from the ashes...as the “firebird” keeper of the inner flame!

I have carefully dreamed this journey for us, in honor for the Sacred path of Mask Making. I would like to offer you guidance, along the sacred line of the Medicine Wheel. Upon each direction there is a gift for you, creating along the way ...you will hold Four Masks of many, that will represent the depths of your most inner places, awoken through meditation, symbolism and the wisdom that allies in all the sides that we turn for a direction...you will understand the energy patterns that hold these “faces” and how we find these in our day to day movement. In understanding these energies you will learn how to choreograph and transform; balance our feminine and masculine; and use these gifts for our healing and community.

Towards the end of the journey we will unite the Four Masks into One Mask, as a centering place within, as Mask of Power and our most Sacred Face.

We will honor and initiate the awakening of the Masks in a ceremony, we will give away and empower your Song!

This work is very Sacred. It is often personal and sometimes difficult...I would like to make room for each of you and offer my time on a “one to one” basis, in presence. The workshop lasts 7 sessions, the hour could vary from 3 to 5 hours...and to your call I will set the day!

$ 400.00 ~ the materials required for the mask building are inclusive....except your sacred objects that you will decorate your personal mask with.....HO!

For the individuals who are interested in creating a single Mask in 2 sessions ~ $ 125.00
